International DJ (France)

Involved in entertainment, music & events for most of his life, he has accumulated quite the track record with a broad amount of venues, clubs and industry professionals.

Along the way, he has constantly been exposed to the best the local music scene has to offer And along with musical influences from his French/ European background, his past and current ventures have led him to work alongside some of the most recognised DJs in the region.

Recently, he released his latest EP featuring remixes from local maestros The Sunchasers, and his love and passion for music is constantly accentuated by his deep, soulful and funky refined selection of sounds.
